Italian Troops Face German
Troops For First Time
Since World War

(International News Service)
For the first time since the World War, German and Italian troops today confronted each other in the Brenner Pass, Russia,
Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia,
Italy, Hungary, and France protested strongly—but apart from those gestures, Europe took the Hi-tlerization of Austria "lying down."

Developments:
VIENNA—Ex-Chancellor Schus-ching was placed in "protective custody." Chief of the German secret police arrived to "purge dissidents." More than 300 German military units landed.

MUNICH—Hitler has arrived in Austria. Der Fuehrer issued a statement saying Austria was "saved from brutal oppression" and promising a "total reformation" soon.

BERLIN—With 100,000 troops in Austria, with detachments at the Brenner Pass, Germany turned down Anglo-French protests as the unacceptable.

LONDON—Anglo-German relations were strained almost to the breaking point. Hitler's coup, said an official bulletin, is "bound to have a most disturbing effect" on European peacekeeping efforts.

PARIS—The Socialist party voted to support Leon Blum as premier and give him full emergency powers.

ROME—Troops were massed at the Brenner Pass, but Italy accepted
Austrian developments as inevitable.

PRAGUE—Strict border control was set up as the cabinet decided to await the decision of western powers.

bocker called that thousands of German officials accompanied the Reich troops into Austria.

Austria. Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler placed his version of the bloodless and sent 100,000 troops across the border to solidify his coup.

Utterly oblivious to the warnings and protests from foreign countries that descended in a paper snowstorm on the Wilhelmstrasse, the Fuehrer went to Munich and from there issued a lengthy proclamation justifying his action on the grounds Schusching had oppressed the Nazis "by the most brutal means of terror."

The people of Austria have now been liberated, he said, and as soon as possible will have a chance to approve or condemn his action in

Celebrating Notable Anniversary Today

Today is the birthday of Fred L.
Rentz, president of The New Castle
News. But it is not just another birthday, it is his 70th birthday.
For today he reaches the three score and ten mark. Seventy years ago today he was born in Crotton, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Rentz. While he is in Miami, Fla., for the happy occasion, many of his friends here remembered him by wire and letter.

New Castle is the city of his birth and it has been his home since then.
Not only has he lived in one city all his life but he has been engaged in the same work since he was 14 years of age, that of working for The New Castle News. On July 30 of this year he will have been with The News 56 years.

As a boy of 14 he came in from the farm and started as a printer's devil. Later he learned the trade of a printer, was made foreman of The News composing room, then manager of the plant and still later, president.

Following in his footsteps on The News is his son, J. F. Rentz, the

Italy Accepts Hitler's Occupation Of Austria

By FRANK GERVASI
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

ROME, March 12.—Twice rejecting French appeals for a joint declaration against Germany, Italy today accepted Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler's occupation of Austria and contended itself with massing troops at the Brenner Pass.

The Italian Tyrol is for Italians, the Fuehrer said, and Nazi expansion will not go further south than the Brenner Pass.

No Joint Action
On two occasions during the past 24 hours, M. Blondell, the French charge d'affaires, called on foreign minister Count Galeazzo Ciano with a plea for joint action. On both occasions he was rebuffed.

The Italian government officially declared its full and unreserved approval of the German coup as a "natural consequence of the fundamental policy of the Rome-Berlin axis."

Meanwhile, Britain moved to speed negotiations for an Anglo-Italian friendship treaty. British ambassador Lord Perth called on Ciano and a lengthy discussion of the Austrian situation ensued.

Ciano told Lord Perth that Italy is not prepared to go to war to

Supposed Mad Dog Executed

Police Officers Shoot Dog After Chase In Seventh Ward
This Morning

Officers Carl Wallace and Herman Richards in Cedar street this morning shot to death a white Spitz dog which they believed mad and which attempted to attack the officers after the canine was alleged to have bitten Joseph Chmura, 11, 1014 Ashland avenue and several dogs.

According to the officers the dog attacked the boy at Cedar and Liberty streets. It was also said to have fought with several dogs.
When the officers caught sight of the dog, covered with blood and apparently running amuck, they followed.

At a point near the American Can company office they cornered the dog which ran toward the officers.
They brought guns into play and the dog was killed.

Lindberghs Sail For Home Today

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, March 12.—Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh were Europe-bound aboard the North German Lloyd liner Bremen today.
Elaborate secrecy marked their sailing shortly after midnight. Arriving at the pier they boarded the vessel by the baggage gangplank at street level. Their names did not appear on the passenger list and even the captain had not been advised that they would sail.

Chicken Fight Patrons Arrested

Officers Get 30 Persons Attending Battle On Farm Near Harlansburg

SURPRISE VISIT
MADE AT MIDNIGHT

It was a lovely night in Scott township Friday night. It was in Slippery Rock and North Beaver too, but the moonlight in Scott township seemed more effulgent than it ever was to some of the boys who gathered in a barn on the Painter farm between Harlansburg and Slippery Rock.

The boys were out for an evening's pleasure, their idea of pleasure being to have a couple of game roosters try to kick each others brains out. Everything was going nicely about 12:30, eight of the same roosters had been killed and seventeen more were waiting their chance to do and die for their alma pappy who had a five buck bet on his favorite rooster.

Comes the law, eight brawny representatives of the government, and the cock fight was over. Twenty-nine men were arrested by state officers as visitors. Donald Painter, owner of the farm was arrested as the proprietor and the boys all went for a nice ride in to Alderman
James C. Brice.

Under the charge of gaming the boys paid $200 fine and costs. Mr.
Painter the farm owner paid $50 and costs. The only winner in the fight will be the hospitals which will get the seventeen roosters, which were confiscated.

Building Program Is Threatened By Big Strike Today

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, March 12.—Pennsylvania's vast general state authority building program was threatened by a strike today.

James J. McDevitt, head of the Philadelphia unit of the Building Trades Council, A. F. of L. affiliate, informed Gov. George H. Earle of letter that more than 400,000 workers will be called out on strike next Tuesday, unless there is a change of policy in the employment of workers on state authority projects.

"What we want is a change in the regulations to provide that after the list of relief workers is exhausted, union members in the construction area who have kept off relief will be given preference before relief workers are brought from the outside," McDevitt said.

Governor Earle was asked to urge Washington to rescind an order requiring 58.2 per cent of the labor drawn from relief rolls. Col. A. S.
Janeway, director of the state authority, planned to confer with Governor Earle on Monday.

High School Players Present "Stage Door"

"There's a broken heart for every light on Broadway" was the way the old song put it. George Kaufman and Edna Ferber expressed it differently, in terms of frustration and a tragedy, heartbreak and disappointment, the story of the human mols that beat themselves to death against the white flame of the Gay White Way. And called it
"Stage Door."

It was a good play both on the stage and screen and Friday night the senior high school drama department presented it capably in the high school auditorium. Tragedy and frustration are not easy for high school youngsters to portray.
But, all in all their work was most commendable.

Mrs. Sunday Arrives For Mission Meetings

Mrs. William A. Sunday, widow of the late internationally known evangelist, Billy Sunday, arrived here this morning to participate Sunday in two public programs which the City Rescue Mission will sponsor in the First M. E. church.

The service at the First M. E.
one at 3 and the other at 7:30 p. m., mark the climax of the week-long celebration of Superintendent Archie Gibson's first year of leadership at the city mission. The First Presbyterian church will be held in reserve for an overflow crowd.

Mrs. Sunday, who came here from Chicago, will speak tonight at the regular 8 o'clock service in the mission, 17 south Meyer street, and Sunday morning at the regular 11 o'clock service of the Third U. P.
church on East Washington street.

Affectionately known to hundreds of friends as "Ma" Sunday, the guest speaker for the week-end services is staying at The Castle Inn during her visit.

Superintendent Gibson of the mission said today that seating space will be reserved at the 3 o'clock meeting Sunday for members of the Annetta McKee Bible class, the class organized from the morning prayer meetings with Evangelist Sunday conducted when he campaigned here 27 years ago.

Mr. Sunday died in 1935 and since then Mrs. Sunday has been touring the country in the interest of local missions.

Particularly, it is the story of Terry Randall, a girl whose mother was an actress, whose blood is rich with the theatrical virus, who passes up possible screen stardom to stay in New York near the legitimate theatre and who finally gets her chance only after she has suffered three years of disappointment. Who has seen her room-rate commit si-cide as an escape from the hope-

March 12 Babies Scarce At Hospitals

Only One Baby Born In Hospital Up To This Afternoon, Report Shows

There seemed to be a great scarcity of March 12th babies at the two local hospitals today. Up to 1:30 o'clock this afternoon, only one baby had been born since midnight. This was a daughter to Mr. and Mrs.
Tony San Police, of 19 Terrace avenue, in the New Castle hospital at 4:40 o'clock this morning.

March 12 as you know is the birthday of Fred L. Rentz, President of The News Company, and in honor of the occasion Mr. Rentz celebrated by giving $5 to each baby born within the confines of Lawrence County.

Of course, there are still a few more hours to go, and others may quarry for the award. It is possible that some were born in the country outside the city and in local homes, but in the hospitals, only one had been born as the paper went to press.

Proof of birth must be submitted now or before April 1, 1938, in order to qualify for the award.

Part Of Lowellville Under Quarantine

YOUNGSTOWN, O., March 12.—
A police patrol keeps watch over a bridge in suburban Lowellville to keep children from the South Side of the village out of the North Side and vice versa.

Half of the 2,000 residents in the town were ordered under a blanket quarantine by Dr. S. G. Patton, county health commissioner, due to an outbreak of scarlet fever among children on the South Side.

Parley On T. V. A. Avails Nothing

Peace Within Present Direc-

SEVEN-HOUR TALK
AT WHITE HOUSE

By EDWARD B. LOCKETT
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

WASHINGTON, March 12.—
Embryonic single-spaced, typewritten pages of transcript today gave every indication that peace within the Tennessee valley authority's present directorate is virtually hopeless.

Those same pages provided a record on which Senator Norris of Nebraska, author of the TVA act, considered introduction of a resolution calling for resignation of TVA chairman Arthur Ernest Morgan.

The transcript told the story of a seven-hour conference in the round-tabled office of President Roosevelt, where the "executive" called the questioning structure of TVA chiefs to expand and justify their being unable, in no line of this lengthy verbatim report of the tense parley was there even a hint that chairman Morgan on the one hand, and his co-directors Harcourt Morgan and David L. Bristow on the other, can ever compose their differences and work in harmony.

Announcing next is made that the members will first assemble at 2:30 p. m. in the Y. W. C. A. instead of 2 o'clock as had been originally announced.

The Bible class was named after the late Miss Annetta McKee, head of the Y. W. C. A. some years ago.
Mrs. Ida May Allison of Marshall avenue is the present teacher, and Mrs. Grant Fisher is the assistant teacher.

When Dr. Ketchum assumes his new office he will become the fifth

Huge Reception Is Given Hitler In Linz Streets

Germany Dictator Enters At Head Of Impressive
Cavalcade Of Motor
Cars

NEW CHANCELLOR
EXTENDS GREETING

Austrian Nazi Stronghold
Outdoes Itself In Turnout For The Fuehrer

(BULLETIN)
LINZ, Austria, March 12.—Back on Austrian soil as supreme ruler of the nation where he was born, Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler rode into Linz
in triumph at 6 p. m. today (12 noon E. S. T.).

A tremendous reception was accorded the Fuehrer as he rode through the tightly-packed streets of Linz.

Four hundred German armed planes circled with a deafening roar over Hitler's car as the procession wended its way.

Thousands of troops were on hand and the crowds were jammed three and four deep on the sidewalk.

Cries of "Heil Hitler!" and the Nazi song, "We Greeting On," rang through the air.

"Today all Germany is ours," one traveller's chatterbox shouted.
"Tomorrow it will be the world all ours!"

New Chancellor Welcomes
An official delegation headed by Chancellor Kurt Schus-ching and Heinrich Himmler, chief of the Nazi Gestapo, welcomed the Fuehrer on his arrival in the Haupt-platz where the city hall is located.

No cheering Caesar ever received a more tumultuous welcome than the one accorded the Fuehrer when as a "free citizen" he was termed himself in his Munich manifesto—he rode into Linz at the head of an impressive cavalcade of motor cars.

The city was a sea of Nazi flags and bunting. Linz, always a Nazi stronghold, could hardly be pro-pounding to the Fuehrer a mass expression of whole-hearted support for his world-shaking coup in bringing Austria under his one-man rule.

British Cabinet Keeps Hands Off

Takes No Action In Latest Crisis

Only Way To Halt Hitler In Austria Would Be To Declare War

HITLER'S ACTION MUCH DEPLORED

By Kingsbury Smith

LONDON, March 12.—The careful conclusion that nothing can be done to save Austria from Nazi domination was reached at a special session of the British cabinet today.

Belief prevailed that the only way to stem Reich's advance would be to declare war. Government officials expressed regret that public opinion would not support such a move.

In an official announcement, however, the government made clear its appreciation over the situation.

Action of the German government, the statement said, is bound to have a most disturbing effect upon Anglo-German relations.

Prepared for immediate transmission to Joachim von Ribbentrop, German foreign minister, was a sharp warning to keep hands off Austria, the communique read.

The cabinet discussed events in Austria. It was reported informally that a protest was made in the strongest terms had been made to Berlin.

The prime minister and foreign secretary, however, made no such protest. It was reported that the cabinet was in agreement that a protest would be made in the strongest terms had been made to Berlin.

Deaths of the Day

Amos Koonce, aged 67 years, a resident of New Castle for the past 30 years, died Friday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock in Franklin, where he had been residing for several months.

Mr. Koonce was born in Mercer county in 1870, son of a pioneer family, and passed all his life in Mercer, Venango and Lawrence counties.

His wife, Lavina Stalker Koonce, died three years ago. The following children, Orren E. and James C. of New Castle and Mrs. Earl McVey of Franklin, five grandchildren and one sister, Miss Nancy Koonce, of Franklin, survive.

Had he lived until April 8 he would have been 68 years of age.

HITLER SENDING 100,000 TROOPS ACROSS BORDER

Leslie planned by ousted Chancellor Kurt Schuschnigg, he said, was a fraud "designed to deprive the majority of Austrian people of their rights."

In his impassioned manifesto, Hitler painted the third Reich as a savior in shining armor which, expelled by the opposition and betrayed at its doorstep, moved in to restore justice "as any decent nation would."

To Unite Nations.

His proclamation made crystal clear that he and the German people are satisfied that what was done was the right thing to do, and that neither protests nor threats from abroad will swerve him from his dream of uniting Austria and Germany in a national entity. He called it the reuniting of an "eternal blood-linked link."

While nothing official was revealed concerning the numerical strength of German troops sent into Austria, foreign military attaches agreed Hitler would only be asking for trouble if he sent in less than 100,000 men.

This belief was predicted upon the fact that opposition forces in Austria would immediately revive their courage if scattered detachments advanced instead of a large, fully equipped force ably backed by artillery, tanks and airplanes.

On his way here from Munich, Hitler stopped briefly at Braunau, his birthplace. The visit was only a brief one.

His brother was accompanied by Generals Keitel and Dietrich as well as his adjutant, Hans Brunker. He planned to remain in Linz overnight.

BOY IS INJURED.

David Ferguson, son of Rev. and Mrs. D. L. Ferguson, of Sheridan avenue, suffered a painful injury to his right arm Friday afternoon in the tumbling classes at George Washington Junior-Senior high school. Upon examination by a doctor, it was discovered that the arm was not broken, only badly sprained. It will be some time, however, before the splint can be removed.

The Women's National Health association of Ireland will apply for registration as a nominating body of the senate.

'Episcopal Church' Rector's Subject

Who started the Episcopal church? What is its historic background and heritage? This will be the subject matter of the sermon in Trinity church tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock to be delivered by the Rev. Philip C. Pearson. This is a part of the varied program of the parish during the Lenten season, which includes information that there may be an intelligent grasp of present day Christian opportunities. During the Lenten season the Episcopal church has been true to the message with which it was entrusted. It is celebrating until April 30, 1939, the sesquicentennial of the constitution of the United States. Americans are interested increasingly in examining the past that they may the more wisely determine the future. The same interest is to be found today as regards the church for it has to do with the pressing problem of Christian unity.

The World At A Glance

may be described in the beautiful understatement of the French phrase, "Not too good." Under any thing like normal conditions, the permanent capital requirements of industry are and should be supplied by investors, not by banks.

"For five years the forces of government have striven valiantly and by no means unsuccessfully to render the investment of funds in private industry a more intelligent and intelligible process. Yet today the general run of citizens are so reluctant to make long-term investments that established enterprises of high credit rating turn to the banks for short-term credits to finance temporarily their long-term capital requirements. The price of bank accommodation is low because the demand for it is almost non-existent. There is hardly a quotable market rate on long-term loan capital.

But we know that there are ample supplies of capital waiting to be put to work at fair rates, asking only some reasonable assurance of the integrity of the invested dollar. Who can we not devise the means of releasing this pent-up energy? Is the United States a finished product? Or does one-third of a nation still lack the food, clothing and shelter that it might be supplied?

Garth Edmundson Is Making Notable Record

Life these days for Garth Edmundson, noted organ composer of New Castle is a continual musical triumph. His compositions have attracted the attention of organ musicians and critics over the entire world and today he is listed with the truly great composers.

Mr. Edmundson's reputation has been made through competition; but unlike many composers he is also a talented performer. He has given but little of his time to public appearances despite many requests. In response to many requests he is now arranging a limited number of appearances in outside cities but New Castle hears him every Sunday evening in short recitals in the Baptist church where he is the organist.

He is a credit not only to himself and his profession, but to his native city, New Castle.

A recent analysis of the programs played by American organists during the year 1937 places Mr. Edmundson at the head of the nation's composers, being exceeded only by such names as Bach, Handel, Mozart and Wagner. And of these five, he is the only one living.

It is a peculiar and a significant fact that Mr. Edmundson's music has been accepted where American music has long been frowned upon. Recitalists in all parts of the country have favored him. Entire programs of his work have been featured at the University of Florida and Southern California. Famous shows, organized at Trinity church, Boston, introduced both of Mr. Edmundson's symphonies at recent National Organists' conventions. Channing LeFebvre, organist at Old Trinity in New York City, who has very little American music, has played within the past two years the majority of Mr. Edmundson's compositions.

His music has stirred critics to superlatives of enthusiasm. He has been hailed by many as the "Vanguard of the wilderness," "Edmundson," it is said, "has something to say." And what is more, he's saying it.

The year just past, 1937, is a milestone, so to speak, in Mr. Edmundson's career. It saw the publication of his "Seven Modern Preludes on Ancient Themes." He considers this his best outstanding composition.

Norfolk-Grae (London-New York Publishers) have in preparation an "Edmundson Commemorative Service" which is to be on the market soon. The American Organist, a journal devoted to the organ, sums up Mr. Edmundson's work in capsule form in a recent quotation. It says: "In Garth Edmundson, organist, Percussionist, organist, and composer, America has produced perhaps the outstanding composer of organ music of this decade."

The year just past, 1937, is a milestone, so to speak, in Mr. Edmundson's career. It saw the publication of his "Seven Modern Preludes on Ancient Themes." He considers this his best outstanding composition.

Norfolk-Grae (London-New York Publishers) have in preparation an "Edmundson Commemorative Service" which is to be on the market soon. The American Organist, a journal devoted to the organ, sums up Mr. Edmundson's work in capsule form in a recent quotation. It says: "In Garth Edmundson, organist, Percussionist, organist, and composer, America has produced perhaps the outstanding composer of organ music of this decade."

His music has stirred critics to superlatives of enthusiasm. He has been hailed by many as the "Vanguard of the wilderness," "Edmundson," it is said, "has something to say." And what is more, he's saying it.

Jugoslavia Today Becomes Excited

(International News Service)
 BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, March 12.—Great excitement prevailed in Yugoslavia today over the Nazi German coup in Austria. The first result was revival of differences among Serbs, Croats and Slovenes. The Croats and Slovenes, most of whom are Catholics, favored drastic action against Germany, but the government pursued a "wait and see" policy. It was reported that Yugoslav troops are massed in readiness along the Austrian border, but it was denied they had marched into Austria. American ship dealers or Macgregor's are being shown in Paris a model ship with their details of differences among Serbs, Croats and Slovenes. ### Vote Concurrent

Resolution For

Mooney Freeing

(International News Service) SACRAMENTO, Cal., March 12.—The California state assembly today voted a concurrent resolution to grant a legislative pardon for Tom Mooney, California's celebrated prisoner, serving a life term for the San Francisco preparedness day bombing of 1916.

The vote was 41 to 29 and the resolution was sent to the senate for concurrence.

There is little doubt that the resolution will be defeated in the senate as the upper house has repeatedly, in past sessions, turned down all assembly efforts to free the wartime prisoner. Not only had the legality of the resolution been repeatedly attacked, but senators have always followed a "hands off" policy on the issue, mainly that nothing should be done until Mooney's case has been disposed of by all courts.

Wilmington Grange Program Enjoyable

Large Attendance Gathers For Meeting As Young People Are Hosts

Wilmington Grange met in Wyatts Lodge, New Wilmington, on Thursday evening, March 10, with Master Logan Buckwalter presiding. There was an exceptionally good attendance. At the same time, the Juvenile Grange was in session, the young people being hosts to the young people of North Beaver, Pleasant Hill and Mahoning Valley granges.

One new member was admitted by the Subordinate and Juvenile Granges. The lecturer's program for the Subordinate Grange was as follows: Song—Grange.

Talk—"My Trip South," Clyde Lamb. Closing Song—Grange.

Master Joe Buckwalter presided at the meeting of the Juvenile Grange, when the entire lecture hour was devoted to the observance of Pennsylvania Day.

The state motto, "Virtue, Liberty, Independence," the state flag, and the state nicknames were discussed. The program was as follows:

State bird—Ruffed grouse, Clifford Green. State flower—Mountain laurel, June Pontius.

State tree—Hemlock, Donald Minner. Piano selection—Betty Hileman. Founder of Pennsylvania—William Penn, William Fulkman.

Lives of other prominent citizens in our history—Esther Buckwalter. State song—Pennsylvania, Grange. Interesting points in Pennsylvania were discussed, including Cook's contest. A historical and geographical question box followed and memory character items were given in unison. The group also enjoyed a period of games.

AUTO VICTIM IS SLIGHTLY IMPROVED

Slight improvement is noted in the condition of Mrs. Catherine Pulford, of Woodland avenue, who was struck and seriously injured by an automobile on Highland avenue, three weeks ago. Mrs. Pulford has been in a critical condition in the Jameson Memorial hospital since the accident.

Twelve-inch crystals of garnet are found frequently.

Falcons-Keys Battle Sunday

First Game Of Championship Series Will Find Crowd At Falcon Court

Two eager basketball teams are eagerly waiting today for the first game of a city championship series between the Polish Falcons and Keystone A. C. that will take place Sunday afternoon at the Falcon hall with a preliminary game at 1:30 o'clock.

This is the annual series that packs the popular Miller avenue hall to the rafters. Two of the finest and perhaps strongest teams in the city, these two clubs will stage a great battle on the morrow.

Coach Andy "Coots" Venditto has the keys at the peak of condition for the grueling game that will see Coach Henry Kozela's Falcons pitted for their best game of the year. The Falcons will concentrate their offensive attack on Lester "Duke" Reiber, Henry Kozela and Eugene "Gaby" Kendra. The Keys will have seen stars as Joe Keyley, Paulie Morrison and "Poppy" Adams in the lineup. It will be a battle of star performers, most of them former New Castle High luminaries.

The Standing Room Only sign will be hung out early. There will be about 300 or 400 present at the game.

Castle Will Put Strong Team Into County Tournament

Team Composed Of Former New Castle High And Union Stars

The Castle basketball team newly organized will make a determined bid for the City-County championship tourney that will be staged at Washington High court. The Castle is made up of former Union High and New Castle High stars.

Among the more prominent members of the team will be "Ducky" Guinahan, sensational guard of the Union High Section 21 championship team, and along side of Guinahan will be "Cap" Covelio former New Castle High star and All-W. P. A. L. guard of two years ago.

At center will be "Wild Bill" King of Union High fame, and on the one forward will be "Mike" Covelio former Union High star forward, and at the other forward will be "Bis" Horchler, also a member of the Union High champs. Others will be Mike Perrell, Dudley Perrell, Freddie Covelio, and "Cap" John Smith, the latter also a Union High star of several years.

The team has high hopes of making a fine showing in the tourney.

St. Nicholas Trip Pulaski

The St. Nicholas five handed the K. Pulaski team a 39 to 26 set-back at the Falcon hall on Thursday night with J. Tepson and Howie the big scoring stars. For the doctors the work of Ostrowsky, Wolowitz and son was the best.

Sunday the St. Nicholas team will play the Conemaugh Sokols at the K. Pulaski hall. The St. Nick's girls team will play the preliminary game.

(Special To The News)
SLIPPERY ROCK, March 12.—Slippery Rock's 1932-1933 varsity basketball team, under Coach N. K. Thompson and athletic director Dr. A. P. Vincent, ended a highly successful season when they triumphed over their traditional foe, the City-County team, in a thrilling victory, 32 to 27, at the Falcon hall.

The Rocket season had many highlights, among them being two very close but fruitless games with the Waynesburg quintet, two narrow victories over the Edinboro Teachers—one after an extra period, two similar defeats at the hands of their rival Indiana Teachers, and a last minute defeat at Westminster. Balancing these were their easy victories over Thiel and the Ohio College of Chiropractic, and their satisfactory wins (2 each) over Grove City, Clarion Teachers, and the California Teachers. They also suffered an early season defeat to Westminster, won early over Penn College of Cleveland, and dropped a "hot-down" game to Penn near the end of the year.

The highly successful Thompson squad of 1932 had lost by graduation five seniors, among them being Axel and Truman who led the Rocket attack and scored for three years.

Among the seniors of three years ago were: So-capitain Barnes and Denbow, and Meals, and a sophomore of promise, Van Horn. Coach Thompson built one of the best teams of his 22 years of coaching at Slippery Rock. The co-captains along with Van Horn were the mainstays of the squad, while Joe Lytle, a smooth freshman, and Ed Nahas, a junior, completed the quintet. "Bo" Meals was the "steady" influence in many games, and John Chellman, a Today's short sport story... the item was briefly perused, in fact, succinct... it read: the great Galloping Ghost of football, name, Harold "Red" Grange, who underwent an emergency operation recently, will leave the hospital today, having been enough to describe the sparkling story of the greatest quidder in intercollegiate competition... his wizardry on the football field captured the heart of every fan in the country... his name became an institution... now, Grange is dismissed with a few words... his story depicts how pitiless Time acts, even with the best... the item does not reveal the tragic story of the loss of a fortune, estimated at approximately $500,000... after his unfortunate one-man show on the gridiron, the famous No. 77 jersey worn by Grange together with C. C. Pyle, Grange went on to get fabulous money with a football traveling circus... everything went along smoothly until Pyle conceived an idea about a Boston Derby... the enterprise found Grange and Pyle losing out the sheriff's story of the time, but Grange returned to the gridiron, minus his money... Father Time relegated Grange to assistant coach... the concluding line of the item speaks for itself... "Grange's ailment resulted from an old injury incurred on the football field."

It is all that's left to the story book career... by contrast, one learns the grim story of how Time and Fame play their part... a volley that was a volley... imagine volleying a tennis ball for approximately 75 minutes and at a total of something like 2,001 shots in all... although this sounds incredible, Helen With Moody and Howard Kinsley recorded this net marathon once... Cleaning out the question box... to G. O. P. we have been unable to get information relative to the rack meet you inquired about... offhand, we say your dope on the golf path encounter at a 16, as sent in to Joe Santa Clara won the Sugar Bowl football game on New Year's Day and not the Orange Bowl event... to Charley Uhlau Faber was a famous pitcher with the Chicago White Sox...

FARRELL TRIPS UP FRANKLIN HIGH
Farrell High, winners of the Mercer county title this year after a great season in which they subdued Sharon High, went to Grove City last night and won its first district title since 1925. The score over the midge Franklin High team was 44 to 20.

Farrell will next meet Alderidge High, Pittsburgh City champs. The district game will be played next Wednesday at the Pitt Stadium. Early in December New Castle High went to Farrell and upset the Steelers by a close margin.

Baer Defeats Tommy Farr In Great Battle

Heavyweights Slug It Out For 15 Rounds At New York, Baer Looks Different

TWO KNOCKDOWNS FEATURE BOUT

By DAVID J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, March 12.—Two knockdowns he scored, one of them with a left hook. A left hook? It was almost as though Popeye, the Seafarer, were to haul off without warning and slug him. He won eight rounds clearly, vividly and sometimes magnificently and though he yielded at last, this was done with becoming grace and only after robust protest. He was charged with the task of trying to pull the Reds out of the slump of last season's last place finish and generally is expected to turn his wagon to some new stars—unless they trinkle out on him.

Fact Outfield
The race now on in the Reds camp at Tampa, Fla., has been declared wide open and is being won by a left hook. A left hook? It was almost as though Popeye, the Seafarer, were to haul off without warning and slug him. He won eight rounds clearly, vividly and sometimes magnificently and though he yielded at last, this was done with becoming grace and only after robust protest.

Baer Comes Back
For Max Baer, the fastest, the punch, the unwarmed and disdained, came back amazingly at Madison Square Garden last night to win a unanimous fifteen round "great" over Tommy Farr, the British champion, and even more of Farr a mark and a putty snuff beyond the comparatively unimpaired efforts of Champion Lewis and ex-champion Braddock in that connection. But we don't need to go far. In our set, three stars are always on.

We don't need to go far with the lobby candles, who made Farr 9-5 at the time and won for what is known as a drink. They're strictly unimpaired and so is their chunk. That Baer is never unimpaired and cannot be. It may be that he never will be again for this not only was the old Baer come back, the old Baer come back, the old Baer come back, the old Baer come back.

He actually used a straight left with effect. Sometimes he even picked off punches with it, and in the second round, he hooked it first to the shoulder, and then to the jaw, dropping Farr for a flash knockdown. It was the first of two, the other came in the third round from a full right. Farr taking a count of six. A good fact for after time wears, but headed unmercifully by the energetic young man replied that he had started in such a way in the first round and found that when one did this, one has somebody on the stool.

Gate Is 18,222
Perhaps he was downing. By that time the crowd was in the thousands, and he cheered him for five minutes at the finish. They followed him up the aisle. They pursued him to the dressing room and roared upon the door. But the real tribute was paid by the official figures.

These showed that 18,222 paid their way into the Garden for a mass of 67,416. They didn't come to see the other guy.

Cincinnati Banks On Bill McKechnie To Be In Flag Race

Hope That New Manager Can Get Team Out Of Last Place In League

Several Prize Rookies Are Being Tried Out By Redlegs This Season

(International News Service)
CINCINNATI, March 12.—Not only will the Reds begin the 1933 National League pennant race with a new manager, in the person of Bill McKechnie, but they also may present new players in all except two or three positions, according to the rebuilding program now in progress.

Lured away from the Boston Red Sox this winter to succeed Chuck Dressen in the pinstrip seat, McKechnie is charged with the task of trying to pull the Reds out of the slump of last season's last place finish and generally is expected to turn his wagon to some new stars—unless they trinkle out on him.

Soviet Trials Create Wonder

Wonderment Felt By Americans As Accused Persons All Plead Guilty

RECALL CASES OF THOSE WHO TALKED

Central Press. Washington Bureau. 402 Times-Herald Bldg. By CHARLES P. STEWART. Central Press Columnist. WASHINGTON, March 12.—Why all the Russians who are accused of capital offenses plead guilty is a puzzle to Americans.

Members of the diplomatic corps here in Washington tell me that the "hear" as a strategy to them also I do not mean to say that Russian diplomats, too, at a loss for an explanation. I presume that Russians understand their own national psychology. But I can quite comprehend the unwillingness of a Russian, temporarily in America, to be overly communicative. I recall the case of one of my personal friends, Vladimir Rogan, Washington correspondent of Izvestia. He was rather talkative. In due course he was recalled to Moscow, ostensibly to be complimented on his supposedly good work. Never since has he been heard from in this country—though there are rumors that he faced a firing squad.

The same with Russian diplomats—disfranchised ones. They become conversational, are invited home on business, and—that is the end.

PUZZLING

No, if I were a Russian representative of any kind, on foreign duty, I should not tell anything to anybody, unless I planned to remain permanently in exile.

However, I have talked with the spokesmen of various non-Russian embassies and legations—notably with Scandinavians, who are close neighbors of the Muscovites, and might reasonably be thought to have mental quirks. They report that they are as much up a stump as the remainder of us.

And I have heard alienists connected with the government's public health service speculating on the subject as a brain problem. Yet they admit that not every single Russian who is put on trial for his life can have suicidal tendencies. And they ALL plead guilty, knowing that to do so inevitably must be fatal. So the alienists are befuddled likewise; maybe not Russian alienists, but ours are.

NO HOPE FOR MERCY

It is understandable that an individual, in the dock, should plead guilty, hoping to win a modicum of mercy thereby. That happens here occasionally—a possible choice between electrocution and life imprisonment. But these Russians do not hope for mercy. They must know that they will not get any no matter how they plead. It is well-nigh unbelievable that all of them should be accommodating enough to plead guilty simply to save the prosecution trouble, especially considering that in a plea of total self-defense is inclined to be regarded by the prosecutors as a confession.

TORTURE

Perhaps the prisoners have been tortured. Even here we have known instances of suspected persons who have been "third degree" by the police into making doubtful confessions, but in open court they almost invariably have repudiated them. A Russian court probably is not so very open. Still, a bit of publicity is unavoidable. In fact, there has been a good bit of a pre-trial at it in connection with recent trials in Moscow.

CONVICTIONS CERTAIN

It is not so astonishing that the Stalin government gets nothing but convictions. Perhaps its secret service makes no mistakes. Or perhaps its courts are "fixed." But why do ALL of the accused PLEAD GUILTY? Though it would not be one thing to think that, now and then, someone would have the hardihood to withstand the torment and maintain his innocence? EVEN IF HE KNEW HIMSELF TO BE GUILTY? The story is told that the accused are threatened with reprisals against their loved ones unless they do plead guilty. That might be worse than personal torture. But would it be efficacious in EVERY case on record? It seems impossible.

1,500 "GUILTY"

The last batch included 21 persons. All ended in convictions. Not merely that the culprits were found guilty. They owned up to it. One was a trifle weak-kneed, but finally he confessed—with death ahead for doing so.

And preceding these cases were about 1,500 others all ending in convictions following pleas of guilty. In this country would it not be surprising if 1,500 murderers were to go to the electric chair or the gallows in uninterrupted succession without anything but a plea of guilt in one lone instance?

IS HIS LOGICAL?

Alexander Kerensky, Russia's short-time democratic premier, after the revolution which overthrew the czar in 1917, tried to explain the 1917 Russian liberals. He says: "I saw him recently in Washington, had no notion of establishing a Stalin dictatorship, hooked up the 'avars' with dictators in Germany, Italy and Japan. Now according to his account they are remorseful, and confess, sincerely that they wish they hadn't done it."

THIS DOES NOT CO-ORDINATE

With Germany and Japan are anti-Russian. Still, in their different fashions, all vanguard Kerensky's are dictators "under the skin," and basically friendly to one another. Accordingly he refers to his democratic countrymen's pleas of guilty to treason charges as a "comedy of sincere confession."

"Sincere" is all right. But "comedy"?

ONE INSTANCE

Christoph Rakovsky is another Russian who wanted peace. He is one of the 21 recently brought to trial. He does not like Italy's conquest of Ethiopia. He does not like Japan's war against China. Yet he is accused of being a traitor.

It is not coherent.

Nevertheless, he pleads guilty. Make some sense out of all that.

UMBERTO PRIMO SOCIETY

Representing the Wolf Company of Philadelphia, Pa., William Herman, a certified public accountant appeared before the county commissioners on Friday and discussed the possibility of making the audit of the county books which was recommended by the grand jury on Wednesday.

Mr. Herman said his company specialized in municipal audits and had done work in other counties of the state. County Controller Frank W. Hill was called in and asked his opinion as to the advisability of an audit. He said he believed the idea was a sound one and that one of the things accomplished by an audit would be the checking of the county's method of accounting and making changes where they were needed.

County Commissioner Floyd L. Cotton said he had talked to a number of business men in the city and taxpayers and their reaction was that the idea was a good one. No decision was reached at the meeting and the matter will be discussed further with County Solicitor William McElwee and Controller's Solicitor Ralph Cooper.

Attorneys of the county have finally received the volumes of the laws passed by the 1937 session of the General Assembly. Instead of the usual one volume there are two volumes, three thousand pages of law.

For years there has been a pair of doors leading from the outer office of the Register and Recorder to the inner office where the clerks work. The doors were never closed, but no one ever thought of taking them off until Friday. The painters asked what use they were and suggested they be taken off. Custodian Clifford James removed them and the doorway looks better.

Two opinions were handed down on Friday by Judge W. Walter Braham, both concerning property of the Boys' state. One of them was an action of Adelaide Thierck, Elizabeth Vogelius and Charles P. Vogelius against Mary Eva Clemen and others, in which an order of partition was made by the court. The same plaintiffs filed an action against Charlotte and Bert Reed and an order of partition was granted. In each case Attorney Orville Brown was appointed master.

Eight divorces were handed down on Friday by Judge Braham. The eight whose bonds were sliced are: Stella Irene Amelia Welsh, from William Delbert Welsh; Bertha M. Perrill from Thomas H. Perrill; Lawrence Dow from Irene Dow.

AROUND CITY HALL

City of New Castle officials have asked the WPA to approve a second gutter project here which, when completed, will have cost approximately $106,000, of which about $36,000 will be city funds. In the latter amount, is charged up as cost, material now on hand, services of the city engineering corps, and materials, truck rental, ashes and gravel, all essential to the project.

The original gutter project resulted in improvement in streets and avenues as follows: Oak, Chestnut, East Main, West North, Sankey, Maple, Fairmont, Harding, Vine, Haus, Lowry, Greenwood, Orchard, Vogan and other streets. WPA employees at present are working in Locust street between Boyles and Leasure avenues and in William street between Lutton and Harrison Sts.

According to City Engineer Glen R. Throp, the work results in shallow gutters being made which eliminates even-appearing drains, such as old pipe and other material which is apt to cause an accident. In some streets the grade must be remedied. In his opinion the fixing of gutters is a worthwhile job.

As soon as manufacturers start asphalt plants in operation the city will repair Sycamore way between Apple Way and North Mill street. It was torn up badly by the Contractor, City Engineer, Glen R. Throp said Friday. The breaking of the roadway was caused by trucks hauling materials to and from the Murphy company building. The contractor will pay the city for the work, Throp stated.

Mayor Charles E. McGrath conducted traffic court at the police station Friday afternoon. Only one half a dozen traffic violators appeared before his Honor. They were excused from paying a fine because of reasons which were satisfactory to the mayor.

Outbreak of burglaries and attempted robberies here several weeks ago apparently has been checked. According to the detectives they suspect a man from out-of-town as the person who entered several business places. One man who was caught and convicted of stealing clothing was sentenced.

With spring only around the corner, according to City Forester Owen Fox, he is preparing to beautify the various parks in different sections of the city. The forester is kept busy during spring likewise the gardener, Michael Ross, at Cascade Park, who is growing flowers in the green-house.

It is believed that Council, thru Parks Director J. D. Alexander will rent out Cascade Park lake for boating purposes. As yet it is not known if it will be necessary to make the spillway higher at the south end of the lake. Boating at the lake has not been enjoyed for several years.

In view of the continuous operation of the traffic light at Croton avenue and East Brook street there is no reason why an accident should violate the traffic light, day or night. The continuous operation was decided upon by the police chief, Ralph A. Criswell because of a petition signed by residents in that section.
